

Senna Estoril 1985 Limited Edition suit

Stand 21 and the Ayrton Senna Foundation are proud to present a limited edition (41 copies) of Ayrton Senna Racing Suit Replicas (1985 Portuguese Grand Prix at Estoril).

This racing suit in JPS-Lotus team colors is an exact replica of that worn by Ayrton Senna during his first Formula 1 win at the Portuguese Grand Prix, 21 April 1985.

Produced by Stand 21 under the watchful eye of Yves Morizot, founding president of the company who in 1985, personally looked after the development of the Brazilian champion's personal equipment, this edition limited to 41 copies (the number of Ayrton Senna's F1 wins) and manufactured in accordance with the period's standards, comes inside a beautiful wooden frame protected by safety glass.

This framework includes a numbered plaque and a certificate of authenticity signed by the hand of Mr. Morizot.

The portion of revenue from Ayrton Senna brand goes to Ayrton Senna Institute.
